

Questions to Consider—With the Master in the Upper Room—Lesson 11—John 14:27-31—Five Peace Stealers

1) (a) Read John 14 and list your favorite promises. (b) How are these a personal comfort to you? (c) Spend some time thanking God for each promise. (d) How could you use these promises to help someone who is going through troubling times?

2) Memorize John 14:27

3) Jesus says in John 10:30, “I and My Father are one.” Since that is true, than what does Jesus mean in John 14:28 when He says, “For my Father is greater than I”? Prove your answer from the Scriptures.

4) (a) What do the following verses say about peace? Psalms 29:11; 72:7; 85:10; Isaiah 9:6; 26:3; 32:17; John 16:33; Romans 5:1; 8:6. (b) What comfort do these verses give?

5) (a) According to Philippians 4:6-7, what is God’s antidote for anxiety? (b) How does God’s peace affect a believer’s heart and mind?

6) (a) What is the requirement to acquiring peace according to John 16:33 and 1 Peter 5:14? (b) What does the God of peace desire to accomplish within you according to 1 Thessalonians 5:23 and Hebrews 13:20, 21?

7) (a) Write down all the things that could or that are stealing your peace. (b) What is the remedy for peace in each one of these things?

8) After prayerfully considering question number seven, please write down your need in the form of a prayer request.
